VOL. XIV. NO. 6.

GREENVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1912.

50c. PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE

POULTRY

FOR TWO HUNDRED LEGHORNS

Structure Shown in Illustration Provided Entirely Satisfactory During Severe Winter.

During the severe weather of last winter the house shown in the illustration gave us entire satisfaction, writes F. T. Tiffin in Country Gentleman. In this house we had 185 pullets and 15 cockerels, and had no trouble with colds as was the case with an open-front house.

This house is 30 feet long, 14 feet wide, 10 feet high in front, and 5 feet high in the rear; on the front side of the house, facing south, are two openings 3 by 4 feet 6 inches each; these openings are covered on the outside with inch mesh wire to keep out the sparrows; these openings have frames on the inside covered with muslin, which on cold nights is placed over the openings.

The addition to the front is 12 feet long by 4 feet 8 inches wide, and is 6 feet 6 inches high where it joins the building, and 3 feet high at the lower side. The roof of this addition is a hot-bed sash 3 feet wide by 6 feet long. This is used as a dusting room, and the roof furnishes light for the rest of the building. These sash are made so they will slide down in hot weather or when we wish to put in new dust. There are also in front two openings 18 inches high to let the fowls out; these openings have sliding doors on the inside.

On one end of the building we have a door 3 by 6 feet for entrance. All weather boarding is white pine German siding, except on the north side, which is hoarded first with barn boards and then with siding over it. The roof is covered with shingles. Inside the house on the north side is the roosting place; the dropping board is 3 1/2 feet from the floor and is 4 1/2 feet wide and runs the length of the building. Under the dropping board are the nests, 14 by 16 inches. There rest on a platform composed of two fence boards about 4 inches apart and can be taken out separately to be cleaned. In the rear of the house is a board 4 inches wide for the hens to light on to enter the nests. The nests are 16 inches from the floor; in front of the nests is a muslin curtain which hangs within 9 inches of the floor; this makes the nests secluded. The roost poles are about 6 inches above the dropping board and are one foot apart and run the length of the building.

This house can be built for less than $2 per fowl.

PROFIT IN MIXED POULTRY

Most Money is Made Where Chickens Are Kept as Adjunct to Other General Farm Crops.

There is no doubt but that the greatest profit is made in poultry is kept as an adjunct to the other farm crops. On the general farm the feed item and the labor item, as well as the item of land, are of smaller account than on larger poultry farms. To the farmer who is willing to give as much attention to the poultry as he does to any other part of the farm operations, there is a good profit to be made with very little expenditure of time and money. Wherever it is possible the colony house system is strongly recommended for the general farm. It has the advantage of being able to move poultry to any part of the farm, and many times a corn or stubble field for the fowls to range over would mean a great saving in the feed bill. The droppings would also help to fertilize the land, as they are richer than that of any other domestic animal. Poultry kept in this way and receiving the proper attention should prove to be one of the best paying branches of the farm.

CURRENT WIT and HUMOR

A JOB FOR AN EXPERT.

A gang of heavies were employed on a railway contract removing earth with wheelbarrows. While proceeding with his work one of the heavies noticed that the wheel of his barrow was squealing terribly, and to put a stop to the noise he turned the barrow over, and was in the act of greasing it when the ganger noticed him and shouted out:

"Halloo, O'Brien! Halloo, sir! What the deuce are you doing?"
"I'm greasing my barrow, sir."
"Who told you to do that?"
"Sure, no one, sir. I took it upon myself."

"Well, don't let me catch you at it again. What do you know about machinery?"—"Tut-tut."

No Chance for Detection.

"Townley says you'll have to count him out of the theater party."
"Eh? What's the matter?"
"He's so hoarse he can't speak."

"Tell him to come, anyway. You can pair him off with the Gabber girl—she won't give him a chance to say a word."

How It Happened.

"Did you quarrel with your wife's mother that she went home so soon?"
"No, my wife quarreled with her."
"Your wife?"

"Yes; you see, she ordered me not to smoke in the house and I was smoking the cigars my wife gave me on my birthday."

Womanly Caution.

"Oh, Harold," said Mrs. Newlywed, "a strange man was here today and he said he wished to read our gas meter."

"Well, did you let him in?"
"Mercy, not! He used very poor grammar and I felt sure that he would not read it properly."—Judge.

CONSOLATION.

Mrs. Wicks—A woman likes to be comforted.
Mr. Wicks—And her idea of comfort is, when she is miserable to have a man put his arm around her and say "There, there!"

He Will Not.
He'll lead no life of smiling ease,
Who has a wife
That's hard to please.

The Opposite Way.
"Times change and men change with them. In the days of chivalry a knight was tickled to death if he got a lady's glove."
"Yes?"

"Nowadays, nothing makes a man so sore as to get the mitten."

Uses of Time.
"I saved ten minutes a day at lunch for twenty years."
"What of it?"

"Oh, it was well that I saved all this time, for now I spend two hours daily in the anteroom of a dyspepsia specialist."

Poor Business.
"The milliner, as usual, is six weeks behind with my hat."
"Serve you right," growled her husband, the eminent magnate. "You women will deliberately place a big construction order without a sign of a penalty clause."

The English Tongue.
The Customer—Do you sell invisible hair nets?
The Assistant—Yes, madam.

The Customer—Well, let me see one, please?—The Sketch.

Very Much So.
"Is your son following any occupation just now?"
"Sure he's following one. It's all following. He's an ambulance chaser."

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1912.

The total of canal excavation to February 1st was 160,591,185 cubic yards, leaving 34,732,199 cubic yards to be completed. This shows that about one fifth of the entire work of excavation yet remains to be done. On the same date 78 per cent of the concrete work on the locks was in place, Gatun locks being 90 per cent completed, the Pedro Miguel lock over 96 per cent, and the twin locks at Miraflores over 48 per cent completed.

A GEORGIA dispatch says that a great deal of cotton is abandoned in the fields because pickers are so hard to get and the ground is so wet that it is almost impossible to travel over the cotton fields. In view of the enormous amount of last season's cotton which has been ginned, if any considerable amount still remains unpicked the crop must have been very much in excess of the estimates of the Department of Agriculture. As to the labor supply, the agricultural districts of the South may find it to their advantage to guarantee complete personal protection to the negroes whose procession toward the big towns has been stimulated by lynchings and race wars.

ITALY was the first country which had occasion to use aeroplanes in actual war in Tripoli, and the result was interesting. The aerial fleet was only forty aeroplanes and pilots, but there were soon many more added, and owing to a good organization the question of army aeroplanes is to be rapidly developed. At present there are three military grounds in Italy, one on the Tiber River, one at Aviano, and a third at Pordenone. Three more are soon to be installed. As regards airships, it may be mentioned that two small airships of 5,000 cubic yards were used at Tripoli. Italy now has three airships of this size, and is soon to have three others of 15,000 cubic yards. While the airships are built at the military shops the aeroplanes have to be ordered from France, but it is hoped to build them at home in the near future.

TRULY, the Atlantic Ocean is becoming a pond, as some globe-trotters are pleased to call it. The sailing time of the Lusitania and the Mauretania from New York has now been fixed at 1 A. M., so that passengers may enjoy a Tuesday night at the theatre or opera before going aboard, and will reach London on the following Monday in time for luncheon. This is looked upon as a great saving in time at both ends. Travelers now go aboard in evening clothes, find a buffet lunch ready for them, and when they wake up are far out at sea. Big ocean steamships are now almost as regular in their sailings and arrivals as railroad trains.

The Price of Health.

"Take what you will," said the gods to mortals—"and pay for it." The truth that this old Persian proverb teaches is especially clear when applied to health and disease. Health is the normal thing; the human machinery was created to produce certain definite results, and should produce no other.

At the same time, human beings differ physically as much as they do morally and mentally. All about us we see physical millionaires, misers, beggars, spendthrifts, and in watching them we observe that the race is not always to the swift or the battle to the strong. Many a man born rich in the clean blood and iron nerves of generations of careful ancestors has ended his days a pitiable invalid; many another, born to physical poverty, has by wise thrift built up a little capital of health and vigor that has carried him to a comfortable old age.

The whole question is, "What do you want, and what will you give for it?" An inveterate smoker, perishing miserably with cancer of the throat, said boldly that he would risk it again rather than go without his tobacco; a woman whose dietary errors brought her terrifying and agonizing attacks of acute indigestion averred that she would rather die than diet. At least, such persons know what they want and intend to have it.

Unfortunately, they never stop to consider the effect of their folly and self-indulgence on others. We are all so bound together for good or ill that the man who "is no one's enemy but his own" is yet to be discovered. To live within our income, physically, is a duty we owe not only to ourselves but to each other. A man may squander his little capital of health gaily in midnight dissipation, but then he is bankrupt, with not so much as a kind word or smile for his family. Stevenson said that one way of duty and happiness was "to earn a little, and spend a little less"—and it is a good rule in whatever terms it is interpreted.

Old Sol appeared yesterday, and after a week of rain, snow, sleet and cloudiness, his visit was most welcome.

THE LINE OF THE SPINE.

shown above is the curved line which truthfully presents to your eye the condition of your spine if you use a sewing machine. The reason for this is the family sewing machine as ordinarily constructed, is altogether wrong. You cannot sit straight in your chair while operating your machine—try it, sit straight and square as you should, and see if you can sew on your machine; you can't. The needle is 4½ inches from the center where it ought to be. To follow your work you have to twist your body to the left. This twist calls for a wrench and strain of all the delicate chords and ligaments, affecting stomach, spleen, liver, kidneys, bowels and nerves, and resulting in SIDE NEEDLE SPINE.

It was possible for a growing child to operate an ordinary sewing machine; it would be injured for life. The soft cartilage of its spine would twist and warp, its vital organs would be injured to such an extent as to produce nervous disorders.

In schools, as you know, desks and chairs are specially constructed to avoid spinal curvature.

In factories where sewing machines are used, the work is always directly central with the operator, otherwise they could not stand the strain of the twist of the body and continue to work.

THE STANDARD CENTRAL NEEDLE machine is a new type of family sewing machine designed as a health saver and preventer of doctors' bills.

In this machine the needle is central with the operator—directly over the center of the machine. To use it calls for no twist of the spine. It causes no strain on the internal organs and consequent tortures of the nerves.

With THE STANDARD CENTRAL NEEDLE machine a woman is safe in using it all day and every day; without it she is not. Compare the two pictures—positions taken from twisted desk which you will have. THE SIDE NEEDLE SPINE or THE CENTRAL NEEDLE SPINE.

We have printed a valuable book, "A STITCH IN THE SIDE" which is yours FREE for the asking—and every intelligent woman will want it and will thank us for bringing it to her attention. It goes into the subject of sewing machine construction thoroughly and explains how and why THE STANDARD CENTRAL NEEDLE SEWING MACHINE is vital to the health of woman and growing girls, and how easy it is to lay. If you value your health and the health of your daughters—you will send for a copy at once—no obligation. It is FREE. A postal will bring it by return mail. ROARK, Agent, Greenville, Ky.

HEN HOUSE IN COLD CLIMATE

Warm in Winter and Moderately Cool in Summer—Easily Constructed and Inexpensive.

Last fall I built a chicken house with double walls. The inside was tar-papered and the roof covered with rubber roofing, says a writer in Missouri Valley Farmer. Three whole windows were put in the south side and a half window at each end, with no windows on the north. The door was put in the southeast corner. There is a ventilator, and the windows can be opened to permit free circulation of air. This house is warm in winter and moderately cool in summer. Our chickens were not bothered this summer with lice, while a year ago, in the old quarters, we could not rid them of the pests.

WHITEWASH FOR HEN HOUSES

Excellent Plan to Treat Building Once Every Year—Government Formula is Given.

Each year many prefer to whitewash their poultry houses both inside and out. This is a good plan; it effectively destroys mites and purifies the premises. The following is a formula used by the government on farmhouses, etc. Stake one peck of quicklime with boiling water, covering closely as soon as the water is supplied. When it is slaked strain and add one gallon of salt dissolved in hot water, two pounds of powdered rice previously boiled to a thin paste, a quarter of a pound of Spanish whiting, a half pound of clean glue dissolved in warm water. Thoroughly mix these ingredients, cover, and let the mixture set for a few days to ripen. It may be applied with a whitewash brush or made thin enough to be sprayed on with a spray pump. In the latter case give two or even three coats, one after another, as soon as dry. Every nest, coop, fence, and wood trough should receive the spray on all sides. No lice, mites or vermin can live where this whitewash has been well applied. It should be put on while warm. This will last as long as paint, they say.

POULTRY NOTES

A lock on the henhouse may save some of your best stock. Coops and brooders should be disinfected often and thoroughly.

There is no better thing to use about the roosting quarters than plenty of air slacked lime.

An unfertile egg is worth just as much as any other—but it must be found out before set upon.

Rape will stand a good deal of freezing and is often in good condition until near the end of the year.

If you have good stock you can always find a market for it, and if it is not good it will pay you to make it so.

Filthy houses, runs or yards invite disease, while cleanliness is one of the roads to healthy fowls and success.

A small quantity of wild onions was fed to some laying hens and in about two weeks an onion flavor was noticed in the eggs.

Many colicages in the pens for the hens to pick at, also raw livers. If they can reach these too easily short on the strings.

There is no better pets for the boys and girls than well bred pigeons. Fanciers, Pouters, Tumblers, Magpies, Owls, Homers, etc.

The last meal of the day is the most important now and it should be warm and substantial as it prepares the hen for the duties of the next day.

There is a profit in selling eggs on almost any market if the business is properly conducted; but there is no big money without special markets.

Underfeeding chickens is as bad as overfeeding. Give them enough to live on comfortably whether we provide enough to lay eggs on or not.

When you mark a crate of eggs "strictly fresh" mean what you say. Stand back of every egg you offer for sale. That is what builds up reputation.

THERE IS NO OTHER COFFEE JUST LIKE THIS ONE.

Good Morning
A fragrant scent greets you.
A tempting aroma meets you.
A delicious flavor awaits you in every cup of
Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee

Most of the ordinary coffees sold taste a great deal alike—most of them fairly good.

It's only now and then you find one that stands out from the rest with an unusually good flavor, and so much of that flavor in each pound that it's really economical per cup even at an apparently high price per pound.

There are a few such coffees and Chase & Sanborn's at 30¢ per lb. is one of them.

The only difference between Chase & Sanborn's and the few other unusually good coffees is that the flavor of Chase & Sanborn's appeals to more people than any other coffee blend known.

Also every pound of it is absolutely uniform, right up to the top notch standard, and furthermore, each pound contains all the flavor that careful selection, ageing, blending and roasting process can crowd into a pound of coffee.

Judged by many standards Chase & Sanborn's is worth 30¢ to 40¢ per pound. It's yours for 30¢.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and cleans, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

Jarring the Welkin.

The candidate for president, when I was younger, never went cavorting up and down the land a-babbling words to beat the band. His captains made whatever noise was needful to arouse the boys, and he, from all the clamor free, preserved a decent dignity. But now the hustling candidate for office of chief magistrate rants up and down and paws the air like some cheap faker at a fair; like charlatan dispensing pills to cure the nation's grievous ills. I've heard him ranting, many a time; I've seen him hoarse and gray with grime, stand at a railway coach's door and fill the air with squeal and roar, imploring people for their votes—a spectacle for gods and goats. Our presidential candidates should do like other peddling skates and take some side-show freaks along to play the bones or sing a song, and have a monk collect the mon when all the noisy show is done. Alas, alas! The good old days, the sober men, the quiet ways!

Iowa "Hornets" Wish to Meet Old Foes.

The ninth reunion of the "Iowa Hornets' Nest Brigade" will be held at the battle field of Shiloh, Pittsburg Landing, Tenn., April 5 and 7, 1912. We extend to the Courier-Journal a cordial invitation to meet with us on that occasion. And we extend a most cordial invitation to all the old Confederate veterans who fought so gallantly and heroically on Shiloh's bloody field a half century ago. We want all the survivors of that battle, and especially those who were engaged in those terrific assaults on the "Hornets' Nest."

We want you to come and bring your families and we will give you the warmest reception we know how to give to make your visit pleasant. Would the Courier-Journal please have your southern exchanges as far as possible to publish this invitation? Yours respectfully,

Death of Walter Sparks.

Mr. Walter Sparks, one of the leading farmers of the Earles section, died at his home yesterday morning. His death was sudden, coming without warning, and was caused by heart trouble. He is survived by his wife and five children, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sparks. Several brothers and sisters also survive him. Deceased was a member of one of the pioneer families of the county, and a man who had the confidence and respect of all who knew him. His death is a great shock to his wide circle of friends and acquaintances, and the community has lost one of its most progressive members. Burial will be in the graveyard at East Union today, where will gather the friends to show this sad token of respect.

Plans have been arranged for a party of some half dozen old veterans and sons of veterans to attend the annual reunion at Shiloh April 6 and 7. This is the semi-centennial observance, and will probably draw the largest crowd that ever has or will attend. Two boats are in service, and one of them has already been sold out, with a large list of passengers booked for the other. The ranks of those who were engaged in this battle are rapidly being depleted, and in a few years there will be none left to recount their experiences.

LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING

Is the way Miss Alta Abel of West Baden, Ind., summed up her existence after having sought in vain for health. She writes: "I was a complete wreck—always tired, worn out and nervous. I had to spend about one-third of my time in bed."

"Vinol, your delicious cod liver and iron tonic, was recommended, and I can truly say it has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took in my life. That nervous and tired feeling is all gone. I have gained in health, flesh and strength, until I feel like another person." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

What Vinol did for Miss Abel, we know it will do for every nervous, run-down, overworked, tired, thin and discouraged woman in this vicinity.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

How Good Would Look a Road Like This.

Right now is a good time to think seriously about Good Roads, and for our people to make up their minds and determine to have them. Our present highways are the relics of past ages, little better than the trails of the first settlers.

Permanent roads, properly graded, drained and surfaced, cost money, but are worth many times the investment. Every man who owns a foot of land should be vitally concerned in the construction of an all-the-year-round highway connecting him with the balance of the world. The joys of life would be multiplied and the value of the land quadrupled.

Talks to Business Men—No. 4

Quite a number of business men have found time to look at the Collins Art Advertising Calendars for 1913 which came in last week.

The verdict is practically unanimous. "Great! The finest line of Calendars ever shown in this territory!" And so it is. What's more, every subject is copyrighted; and everyone is handled here exclusively by us.

The holiday season is the time for the merchant to send a little token of appreciation to his friends and a reminder of his existence to the wide circle of possible customers.

The Collins Calendars are appreciated by every one. Their superior quality makes them a welcome gift and they will be treasured by all who receive them.

Plan now to send one of them to each of your friends and customers at Christmas, 1912.

AUTOMATIC HEN TRAP NEST
Enables Owner to Tell Which Chicken Has Laid Egg—Made Vermin Proof and Safe From Rats.

Who says poultry raising is not a science? A Pennsylvania man has just come forward with an automatic trap nest, by means of which the farmer can tell which hen laid which egg. As the hen enters the nest her weight on the floor causes the door to close. When she lays an egg it rolls down upon another spring-operated mechanism and opens the exit door. The runway into which this egg falls has a series of small stalls.

Trap Nest for Hens.

As she passes through each the door closes behind her, and she cannot go back. The next hen goes through the same performance, and her egg rolls into position just back of that laid by No. 1. It is easy, therefore, to match chickens with eggs and find what kind of food gives the best results. This trap nest is made vermin proof and the eggs in it are safe from the voracity of rats or other animals, or even the chickens themselves.

IOWA WINTER FEED METHOD

With Range of Rye, Daily Feed of Cabbage and Warm Mash Hens Should Be in Fine Condition.

An Iowa poultryman advises this method for keeping cabbage as a winter feed for fowls: As soon as severe freezing threatens, the cabbage should be pulled up and stored away. We adopt the simple method of burying them in the ground, usually right where they stood. The finest heads are reserved for the table and put to themselves and all the remainder of every degree buried down for the poultry. Covering them is quickly done by throwing out a trench with the plow that will admit three heads side by side; then another layer of two heads wide is placed on top of these with roots turned up in every case. Some straw or grass is then thrown over them and on top of this is a thin layer of earth, of a slope to shed off the rain. Later on a heavier covering of earth may be added. Cabbage thus treated will continue to grow more tender, crisp and sweet and far exceeds in flavor the dry stored kind. With a range of green rye, a daily feed of cabbage and a warm mash in cold weather mixed with cooked turnips, beets or potatoes, the hens should be in prime condition to make a high egg record.

NEST BOXES MADE MOVABLE

Arrangement is Shown Where Devices Are Desired to Be Removed From One Place to Another.

It is frequently desirable to have nest boxes which are readily removable from each other. Such an arrangement is shown here. The frame pieces A and B are made of one-inch stuff, firmly nailed together. The wires support the boxes and are firmly attached to the two ends and middle boards. Strips may be used in place of the wires if necessary. The nest boxes are made of half-inch lumber and are 11 inches wide, 12 inches long and 5 inches deep. The bottom is made to project six inches, leaving a step for the hens to light on. A space of 12 inches should be left between the wires so as to give sufficient room for the hens.

To Make Drooping Boards. Drooping boards should be made of matched lumber, and should be 23 inches wide for one roost, and three feet for two. It should be placed from 10 to 12 inches from the wall. The roosts should be 2 by 2 inches, with edges slightly rounded.

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and Easily."

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills act so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headache I take an Anti-Pain Pill and get immediate relief in every case."

A. L. Wilson, Sparta, Ill.
Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.

Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills are different from others. Many kinds of liver pills are "impossible" after one trial on account of their harshness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills do not act by sheer force but in an easy, natural way, without griping or undue irritation. They are not habit forming.

If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return the price. Ask him. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not a real disease. We think of dyspepsia, heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Restorer—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that power and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and self-doubt, constipation, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative Tablets or Liquid—and see for your self what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not injure other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.
